

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

— t852 —

The President

SCANNED/RECEIVED
BY ESEC SEC
2017 OCT -5 PM 1:31

September 15, 2017

Elaine Duke
Acting Secretary
U.S. Department of Homeland Security
Washington, D.C. 20528

Dear Madam Secretary:

I write to lend my voice and support to the efforts of the Catholic Legal Immigration Network, Inc., Catholic Charities USA, and the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Office of Migration and Refugee Services in highlighting the needs of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) recipients in the wake of Hurricanes Harvey and Irma. I urge you to provide affected youth applying for DACA renewals with an extension of the filing deadline and an opportunity to qualify for fee waivers.

Particularly in a nation enriched and strengthened by a broad diversity of cultures, backgrounds, and experiences, we are called to recognize the needs of each person in our society and to work to give others opportunities that many take for granted. We must give voice to the voiceless and offer compassion and hope as we work toward a more just and equitable world.

Sincerely,

Rev. Brian F. Linnane, S.J.
President
Loyola University Maryland

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

NOV 20 2017

Rev. Brian F. Linnane, S. J.
President
Loyola University of Maryland
4501 North Charles Street, Suite 222
Washington, DC 20062

Dear President Linnane:

Thank you for your September 11, 2017 letter. Acting Secretary Duke asked that I respond on her behalf.

On September 4, 2017, Attorney General Jeff Sessions released a letter outlining the Department of Justice's position that the June 15, 2012 memorandum entitled "Exercising Prosecutorial Discretion with Respect to Individuals Who Came to the United States as Children," which established the policy known as Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), is indefensible in court and is inconsistent with the faithful execution of our duly enacted immigration laws.¹

On September 5, 2017, Acting Secretary Duke issued a memorandum rescinding the June 2012 memorandum establishing DACA.² Recognizing the complexities associated with winding down the policy, the Department will provide a limited window in which it will consider certain requests for DACA and associated applications meeting specific parameters delineated below. Accordingly, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) will:

- Consider—on an individual, case-by-case basis—properly filed pending DACA initial requests and associated applications for Employment Authorization Documents (EADs) that have been received by USCIS as of September 5, 2017;
- Reject all DACA initial requests and associated applications for EADs received after September 5, 2017;
- Consider—on an individual, case-by-case basis—properly filed pending DACA renewal requests and associated applications for EADs from DACA recipients that have been received as of September 5, 2017, and from DACA recipients whose DACA will expire between September 5, 2017 and March 5, 2018, inclusive, that have been received as of October 5, 2017;
- Reject all DACA renewal requests and associated applications for EADs filed outside of the parameters specified above;

¹ <https://www.dhs.gov/publication/letter-attorney-general-sessions-acting-secretary-duke-rescission-daca>

² <https://www.dhs.gov/news/2017/09/05/memorandum-rescission-daca>

- Not terminate the grants of previously issued DACA or revoke associated EADs solely based on the directives in Acting Secretary Duke's memorandum for the remaining duration of their validity periods;
- Not approve any new Form I-131 applications for advance parole under standards associated with the DACA policy, although it will generally honor the stated validity period for previously approved applications for advance parole. Notwithstanding the continued validity of advance parole approvals previously granted, U.S. Customs and Border Protection will retain the authority it has always had and exercised in determining the admissibility of any person presenting at the border and the eligibility of such persons for parole. Further, USCIS will retain the authority to revoke or terminate an advance parole document at any time;
- Administratively close all pending Form I-131 applications for advance parole filed under standards associated with the DACA policy, and will refund all associated fees; and
- Continue to exercise its discretionary authority to terminate or deny deferred action under DACA, at any time when immigration officials determine termination or denial of deferred action is appropriate.

As the Acting Secretary announced on October 3, 2017, USCIS will consider deadline extensions on a case-by-case basis for DACA requests received from residents of Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, due to the lack of communications and infrastructure for a prolonged period of time following Hurricane Maria.

Thank you for your letter and interest in this important issue. Should you wish to discuss this matter further, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "LFC", is positioned above the printed name.

L. Francis Cissna
Director