

Webinar Invitation

T and U Visas for Victims of Human Trafficking,
Domestic Violence, and Other Serious Crimes
Wednesday, October 28, 2015
2 - 3:30 p.m. (Eastern)

USCIS invites law enforcement officials and prosecuting agencies to a webinar on T and U visas for victims of human trafficking, domestic violence, and other serious crimes. T and U visas can be granted to eligible victims if they show they are willing to help law enforcement in the investigation or prosecution of the crime. This webinar is intended for law enforcement and prosecuting agencies.

Representatives from our Office of Policy and Strategy and the Vermont Service Center will provide an overview of:

- T visa forms and eligibility requirements
- U visa forms and eligibility requirements
- The role of law enforcement in the law enforcement certification

A question-and-answer period will follow the presentation. Please note that we cannot answer case-specific inquiries during this webinar.

To join the webinar:

- Please confirm your participation by writing to T_U_VAWAtraining@uscis.dhs.gov and include "joining LEA webinar" in the subject line of your email
- The day of the engagement, dial 888-469-0868 and then enter passcode 4433495
- To view the presentation, click this link:
<https://uscisconnect.connectsolutions.com/tulea/>

We encourage you to test your Adobe connection beforehand:

https://uscisconnect.connectsolutions.com/common/help/en/support/meeting_test.htm

For questions about the webinar, please email us at T_U_VAWAtraining@uscis.dhs.gov.

Note to media: This webinar is not for press purposes. Please contact the USCIS Press Office at (202) 272-1200 for any media inquiries.

We look forward to engaging with you!