Form I-131A, Application for Travel Document (Carrier Documentation)

Wednesday, October 5, 8:30 a.m. (Eastern)

Wednesday, October 5, 2:00 p.m. (Eastern)

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) invites you to participate in a stakeholder teleconference to discuss Form I-131A, Application for Travel Document (Carrier Documentation). This new form allows lawful permanent residents to apply for a travel document (carrier documentation) if they are:

- Returning from temporary overseas travel of less than one year and their Permanent Resident Card (Green Card) was lost, stolen or destroyed; or
- Returning from temporary overseas travel of less than two years and their Reentry Permit was lost, stolen or destroyed.

USCIS will host two sessions on Wednesday, Oct. 5, from 8:30-9:30 a.m. and 2:00-3:00 p.m. Eastern to provide an overview of Form I-131A and answer your non-case specific questions. The content of the two sessions is expected to be the same.

To register for this session:

- Visit our registration page to confirm your participation
- Enter your email address and select “Submit”
- Select “Subscriber Preferences”
- Select the “Event Registration” tab
- Provide your full name and organization, if any
- Complete the questions and select “Submit”

If you have any questions, or have not received an email confirmation within two business days, please email us at Public.Engagement@uscis.dhs.gov.

Note to Media: This engagement is not for press purposes. Please contact the USCIS Press Office at (202) 272-1200 for any media inquiries.

We look forward to engaging with you!
