Appeal of Immigrant Investor Program Office Decision

Form I-526, Immigrant Petition by Alien Entrepreneur

The Petitioner seeks classification as an immigrant investor pursuant to the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) Section 203(b)(5), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(5) (2017). This fifth preference (EB-5) classification makes immigrant visas available to foreign nationals who invest the requisite amount of qualifying capital in a new commercial enterprise that will benefit the United States economy and create at least 10 full-time positions for qualifying employees.

The Chief of the Immigrant Investor Program Office denied the Petitio	ner's Form I-526 on the ground that he did not show that the new commercial enterprise,	(NCE), would likely create at least 10 full-time positions for qualifying employees. See 8 C.F.R.	§ 204.6(g)(1), (j)(4)(i) (2017).
Specifically, the Chief concluded that the Petitioner did not submit	a comprehensive and credible business plan showing that the NCE or its wholly-owned subsidiary	,, would likely create the requisite number of jobs. See 8 C.F.R. § 2	04.6(j)(4)(i)(B); Matter of Ho, 22 I&N Dec. 206, 213 (Assoc. Comm'r 1998). On appeal, the Petition	er submits a brief and additional evidence, asserting that he has established eligibility for the EB-5 clas	sification.

In these proceedings, it is the Petitioner's burden to establish by a preponderance of the evidence his eligibility for the requested benefit. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361; Matter of Skirball Cultural Ctr., 25 I&N Dec. 799, 806 (AAO 2012); Matter of Chawathe, 25 I&N Dec. 369, 375-76 (AAO 2010). Upon review, we will dismiss the appeal.

I. LAW

A foreign national may be classified as an immigrant investor if he or she invests the requisite amount of qualifying capital in an NCE. An NCE can be a commercial enterprise as well as "a holding company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, provided that each such subsidiary is engaged in a forprofit activity formed for the ongoing conduct of a lawful business." 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(e) (defining "commercial enterprise").

&lt;sup>1</sup> If a petitioner submits relevant, probative, and credible evidence that leads us to believe that the claim is "more likely than not" or "probably" true, he or she has satisfied the preponderance of the evidence standard. Chawathe, 25 I&N Dec. at 375-76.

An investor seeking EB-5 classification must show that his or her investment will benefit the United States economy and create at least 10 full-time jobs for qualifying employees. 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(j)(4). An NCE may be relied upon by multiple investors each seeking EB-5 classification, provided that each investor has invested or is actively in the process of investing the required amount, and that each individual investment results in the creation of at least 10 full-time positions for qualifying employees. 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(g)(1). The regulation defines "an employee" as "an individual who provides services or labor for the new commercial enterprise and who receives wages or other remuneration directly from the new commercial enterprise." 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(e) (defining "employee").

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(j)(4)(i) provides that to establish job creation, a petitioner must submit:

- (A) Documentation consisting of photocopies of relevant tax records, Form I-9, or other similar documents for ten (10) qualifying employees, if such employees have already been hired following the establishment of the new commercial enterprise; or
- (B) A copy of a comprehensive business plan showing that, due to the nature and projected size of the new commercial enterprise, the need for not fewer than ten (10) qualifying employees will result, including approximate dates, within the next two years, and when such employees will be hired.<sup>2</sup>

Prospective job creation must be demonstrated through submission of a comprehensive business plan. The precedent decision Matter of Ho, 22 I&N Dec. 206, 213 (Assoc. Comm'r 1998), explains that "[a] comprehensive business plan as contemplated by the regulations should contain, at a minimum, a description of the business, its products and/or services, and its objectives" and that "[i]t should explain the business's staffing requirements and contain a timetable for hiring, as well as job descriptions for all positions." Matter of Ho, 22 I&N Dec. at 213, specifies that to be "comprehensive," a business plan "must be sufficiently detailed to permit [U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)] to draw reasonable inferences about the job-creation potential." "Mere conclusory assertions[, however,] do not enable [USCIS] to determine whether the job-creation projections are any more reliable than hopeful speculation." Id. The decision concludes: "Most importantly, the business plan must be credible." Id.

&lt;sup>2</sup> The two-year job creation period described in 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(j)(4)(i)(B) commences six months after the adjudication of the petition. 6 USCIS Policy Manual G.2(D)(5), https://www.uscis.gov/policy-manual/volume-6-part-g-chapter-2.

See Section 203(b)(5) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(5) (2022). In this case, the Petitioner indicates that, at the time of filing, the NCE was located in a targeted employment area and that the requisite amount of qualifying capital was downwardly adjusted from $1,000,000 to $500,000. See 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(f)(2) (2017).

According to page 16 the 2016 business plan, "will create at least 107 new full-time jobs to staff the hotel," which will include positions in the departments of "front desk," "housekeeping," "maintenance," "food," "beverage," and "catering." Page 25 of the 2016 business plan claims that the "managerial team will be hired 3 months prior to the opening of the hotel, and the remaining employees will be hired 1 month prior to the operating of the hotel." The October 2020 business plan presents similar information, except it claims on pages 16, 25, and 36 that will create 108 full-time positions.
A. Job Creation
The Petitioner does not allege, and the record does not demonstrate, that the NCE or its wholly-owned subsidiary has already created any jobs. As such, to satisfy the job creation requirements, the Petitioner must present a comprehensive and credible business plan showing that the NCE and/or its wholly-owned subsidiary will likely use his $500,000 remittance to create at least 10 full-time positions for qualifying employees within the next two years. See 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(j)(4)(i)(B); Matter of Ho, 22 I&N Dec. at 213. The record is insufficient to demonstrate that the Petitioner has satisfied these requirements.
As discussed in the Chief's decision, assuming arguendo that the Petitioner could rely on the anticipated positions discussed in the 2016 and 2020 business plans as evidence of the NCE or job creation, he had not sufficiently demonstrated that the job projection was credible or that the business plans and the accompanying documents were sufficiently detailed to permit USCIS to draw reasonable inferences about the job-creation potential. See Matter of Ho, 22 Shall be managed by or under the direction of the Mangers [who are]  "the business who are] as relating to claims regarding the NCE or its wholly-owned subsidiary's job creation potential, are credible. See Matter of Ho, 22 I&N Dec. at 213.

On appeal, the Petitioner submits another business plan, dated September 2021, and additional documents he claims to relate to the hotel's job creation projections. We will not consider the additional evidence because the Chief had issued two notices of intent to deny (NOID) the petition, each one notifying the Petitioner that the record was insufficient to establish that he met the job creation requirements. As the Petitioner had multiple opportunities to supplement the record before the Chief on this issue, we will not consider for the first time on appeal evidence that he should have presented to the Chief. See Matter of Soriano, 19 I&N Dec. 764 (BIA 1988); Matter of Obaigbena, 19 I&N Dec. 533 (BIA 1988).

Based on the reasons we have discussed above, we conclude that the Petitioner has not sufficiently shown that his $500,000 remittance to the NCE will likely result in the NCE or its wholly-owned subsidiary, directly creating at least 10 full-time jobs for qualifying employees. See 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(g)(1), (j)(4). Specifically, he has not submitted a credible and comprehensive business plan showing that the NCE or its wholly-owned subsidiary will likely create the requisite number of full-time positions for qualifying employees within the next two years. See 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(j)(4)(i)(B); see also Matter of Ho, 22 I&N Dec. at 213.

B. Capital Placed at Risk

As a separate and independent dismissal ground, the Petitioner has not demonstrated that his investment capital has been placed at risk for the purpose of generating a return. As noted on page 9 of the Chief's decision, the Petitioner has not submitted sufficient evidence showing "how [his $500,000] investment is directly responsible for creating jobs." Matter of Izummi, 22 I&N Dec. 169, 179 (Assoc. Comm'r 1998), specifies that in order for a petitioner to meet the burden of establishing that the investment capital has been placed at risk for the purpose of generating a return, "[t]he full amount of [EB-5] money must be made available to the business(es) most closely responsible for creating the employment upon which the petition is based."

In this case, the Petitioner claims that his $500,000 went from the NCE, to Mrto which purportedly used the funds to develop and construct	Hotel and Suites. The record does not indicate, and the Petitioner does not allege, that his $500,	000 was ever remitted to, the business he claims will hire the 107 or	108 full-time employees to satisfy the job creation requirements. See 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(j)(4)(i)(B).	As such, the Petitioner has not shown that the full amount of his EB-5 funds has been made available	e to the business most closely responsible for creating the purported empl	loyment upon which the petition is based. See Matter of Izummi, 22 I&N Dec. at 179; 8 C.F.R. § 20	04.6(j)(4); see also 6 USCIS Policy Manual G.2(A)(2), https://www.uscis.gov/policy-manual/volume-6-part-g-chapter-2.  $^7$

III. CONCLUSION

The Petitioner has not presented a comprehensive and credible business plan showing that, due to the nature and projected size of the NCE, the NCE or its wholly-owned subsidiary will likely create at least 10 full-time positions for qualifying employees within the next two years. See 8 C.F.R.
§ 204.6(g)(1), (j)(4)(i)(B); Matter of Ho, 22 I&N Dec. at 213. In addition, he has not sufficiently established that the full amount of his purported EB-5 funds has been made available to , the business most closely responsible for the job creation upon which the petition is based. See Matter of Izummi, 22 I&N Dec. at 179; 8 C.F.R. § 204.6(j)(4). Accordingly, the Petitioner has not demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence his eligibility for the immigrant investor classification.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.

&lt;sup>7</sup> In light of our discussion on the Petitioner's failure to satisfy the job creation requirements, we need not consider the Chief's additional concern relating to the viability of the project while Mr the majority owner of the NCE and an owner of is going through divorce proceedings. We will instead reserve this and other eligibility issues for future consideration should the need arise.
